FSS Oyo Inaugurates the Congregation of the School

By virtue of the Polytechnic Law of 2019 as amended and other enactment of relevant laws applicable to the school, The Chief Executive Officer / Rector, Surv. D.N Olayinka - Dosunmu as the Chairperson of the occasion, she officially inaugurated the school's Congregation Comprising of the Academic Staff and Non-Teaching staff who are holders of first degrees / HND or its equivalent Constituted the Congregation.

Subsequently, The Registrar & Secretary to the Governing Council, read the statutory Instrument / Legal basis for Congregation, the School being founded on 1st July, 1908 being administered through the collective efforts of the Governing Council and its Committees, School Administration Management and the Academic Board. With the following instrumentation in use:

(1) Federal Polytechnic Act of 2019 amendment
(2) FSS Act of 1990
(3) Public Service Rule (PSR)

(4) NBTE Template

(5) Condition & Scheme of Service

For every Tertiary Institution in Nigeria, (3) Assemblies are obtained, namely:

1) convocation

2) Matriculation

3) congregation

In pursuant of the above therefore, election exercise was conducted into the following positions of the Congregation.

(1) Appointment Interview Panel:

(a) Mr. Ayodeji Ajani (HOD Cartography & GlS)

(b) Surv. J.A. Qadri (Immediate past HOD Surveying & Geoinformatics)

Having satisfied the basic requirement of being Chief Lecturers, their pedigrees and general acceptability, they were nominated by their Academic Staff members and unanimously elected by the entire Congregation.

(2) Research Team

(a) High Chief S.O. Olufunmilayo (Director, Directorate of Entrepreneurship & Skills Acquisition)

(b) Mr. Alagbe Olujobi (HOU GIS)

The two academic staff were also unanimously selected as representatives of the School's Congregation on research.

Goodwill messages were delivered by the Deputy Rector, Librarian, Bursar. The Congregation representatives were congratulated for their emergence and wished them success on their new assignment.

Dean, Faculty of Geospatial Sciences, Surv. P.O. Ibe he went down memory lane of how the school was being administered then, he therefore appreciated the Rector and her Management for the paradigm shift we are all witnessing today. He wrapped his speech up with vote of thanks.